

Public Health Dentistry

Policy for identifying Slow and advanced learners

The Department of Public Health Dentistry follows a formative assessment of learning. Attendance is updated every 3 months and informed to the students. Internal assessments are conducted 3 times in a year as per the yearly calendar of events. Further the theory and practical sessions are modular in nature and are conducted in an interactive manner that encourages a student to participate actively.

Based on the above criteria, faculty identify slow and advanced learners and take appropriate measures to help them:

Slow learners:

1. Counseling is done by the group mentor and the student also interacts with the Head of the department.
2. Based on the needs of the student, students are provided with an opportunity to take up extra clinical work, solve theory papers and have discussions with their mentor.
3. In case any medical help is needed, the student is asked to meet a counselor and the same is informed to the UG coordinators for further guidance as per institutional policy.

Advanced Learners:

1. The advanced learners are provided with an opportunity to participate in various conferences, present papers.
2. They are also provided opportunities to participate in the various programs organized by the department.
3. They are given an opportunity to take the research activity forward through grants and publications.
