REPORT ON ONAM CELEBRATION

Onam is a national festival of Kerala which celebrates the harvest season and the return of the King Mahabali. The intern batch at DAPMRV Dental College had a series of events planned for the occasion. Conducted on 7th August 2021, the day began with the interns putting the Pookalam (Flower rangoli). Not only those hailing from Kerala but the students and staff from all the regions of India had dressed up in traditional Kerala attire (Mundu and Saree) that day. We had our very own Mahabali, Mukunda Ramaprasad a 1st BDS student who visited each department with Payasam (Kerala dessert) to ignite a spark of festivity in everyone. A series of programs were organized later that day at the main auditorium which included group dances by the 1st, 2nd, 3rd year and intern batches, group song and a solo dance. The day ended on a sweet note with the distribution of Payasam among the students and everyone having a memorable and enjoyable time.
